

Frank Scahill Named Prestigious Immaculata Award Recipient

April 2, 2019 – Bethpage, NY - Picciano & Scahill, P.C., a well-respected and recognized leader in New York trial law and insurance defense litigation is proud to announce that Managing Partner, Frank Scahill is being honored by the Cathedral Preparatory School and Seminary and will be awarded one of its highest honors.

The award which will be presented on May 4, 2019 by the Cathedral Preparatory School and Seminary at its 21st Annual Alumni Reunion & Immaculata Dinner is bestowed on select alumni. For 2019, the Layman Awardee is Francis J. Scahill, Esq, who has been chosen as an esteemed alumnus and generous supporter of the school since 1976.

The Immaculata Honorees award is presented each year to alumni and school supporters who possess the values and ideals Cathedral Prep instills and expects of all its students and alumni. The Award is named in honor of the school's patroness, The Immaculate Conception. In addition to Scahill, this year other Immaculata Honorees are Bishop DiMarzio and Dr. Tony Scordato. Of the award, John Ryan of the Cathedral's alumni office, and who is handling details for the event shared, "We are blessed to have such leaders counted among our alumni, faculty and friends of Cathedral Prep."

ABOUT FRANK SCAHILL & THE FIRM, PICCIANO & SCAHILL, P.C.

As Managing Partner, Francis J Scahill, Esq. ensures the firm's commitment to the Golden Rule – responsiveness to clients – and the result has been long-standing relationships – in some cases for decades – with many clients.

Scahill's chief role as Managing Partner is overseeing litigation strategy for the firm. He is an accomplished trial lawyer with more than 100 trial wins; the majority with $1 million or more at risk. He draws on his substantial experience and insights to get results for clients. Pro bono is also part of the culture of the firm. Scahill believes in giving back and offers the firm's legal services pro bono to the US Marine Garrison in Garden City and the US Army Garrison at Fort Hamilton in Brooklyn.

The firm itself, was formed in 1991, when Scahill teamed up with former FBI agent, John F. Picciano, and together they created an organization that quickly became one of the recognized leaders in New York trial law and insurance defense litigation. Under Scahill, the firm now has over 100 professionals and 50 lawyers on staff and a proven track record of substantial wins in a wide variety of practice areas including lawsuits from motor vehicle accidents to construction, labor law, and premises liability claims, as well as significant experience conducting fraud investigations and handling complex insurance coverage issues.
